

Thought of the Month Superannuation; REMINDER Concessional Contributions 2013/14

Concessional Contributions include Employer Contributions (including Superannuation Guarantee), Salary Sacrifice Contributions and Employer Contributions separately made for insurance cover within super or for super fees.

The table below shows the caps that are applicable for the 2013/14 financial year.

Contribution cap	2013/14
Concessional Contributions (CC) cap
• Under age 60	$25,000
• Age 60 or over	$35,000

Note: The relevant Concessional Contribution for the year 2013/2014 is based on the person's calculated Age as at 30th June 2014.

Impact:

It is important to monitor any Salary Sacrifice arrangements so that an employee's total Concessional Contributions (see definition above) does not exceed $25,000 if under age 60, or $35,000 if age 60 or over.

The consequence of exceeding the CC cap is that any excess contributions are taxed at the individuals Marginal Tax Rate. The tax liability may be paid using superannuation savings.
